

National Institute on Drug Abuse

College on Problems of Drug Dependence

2011 Grant-Writing Workshop

Hollywood, Florida

June 21, 2011

10:00 a.m. – 2:00 p.m.

The National Institute on Drug Abuse (NIDA) is sponsoring a grant writing workshop that will be held during this year's annual CPDD conference in Hollywood, Florida. This workshop is designed to orient new research investigators to NIDA and the grant process, and has been well received in previous years. Topics include:

- Research Priorities
- Funding Opportunities (including International Opportunities)
- How to Successfully Navigate the System
- Peer Review Process
- Valuable Tips from a Reviewer

To be eligible, you must hold a doctoral degree and have received this degree after 2004. Clinician scientists and international investigators who have not yet secured NIH R01 funding are eligible to attend regardless of when their doctorate was conferred. Space is limited to 60 participants. Pre-prepared materials will be made available for only those who pre-registered.

If you are interested in attending this workshop, please complete the attached pre-registration form and e-mail it to Dr. Ghim at ghimm@nida.nih.gov with the subject heading: 2011 NIDA Grant Writing Workshop. You will be notified by e-mail if you have been selected to attend. Pre-registration forms will be accepted until June 15, 2011, or until space in the workshop fills up.

Thank you for your interest in learning more about NIDA's grant-writing process.
